The Annual Staff has chosen "building" as the theme for the 1966 edition of the Chief-tain because we feel it has been a most significant aspect of the past year. The new addition to the school prompted us to realize the necessity of constant mental, physical, and spiritual growth of we, as individuals, to maintain a strong and progressive democratic nation.

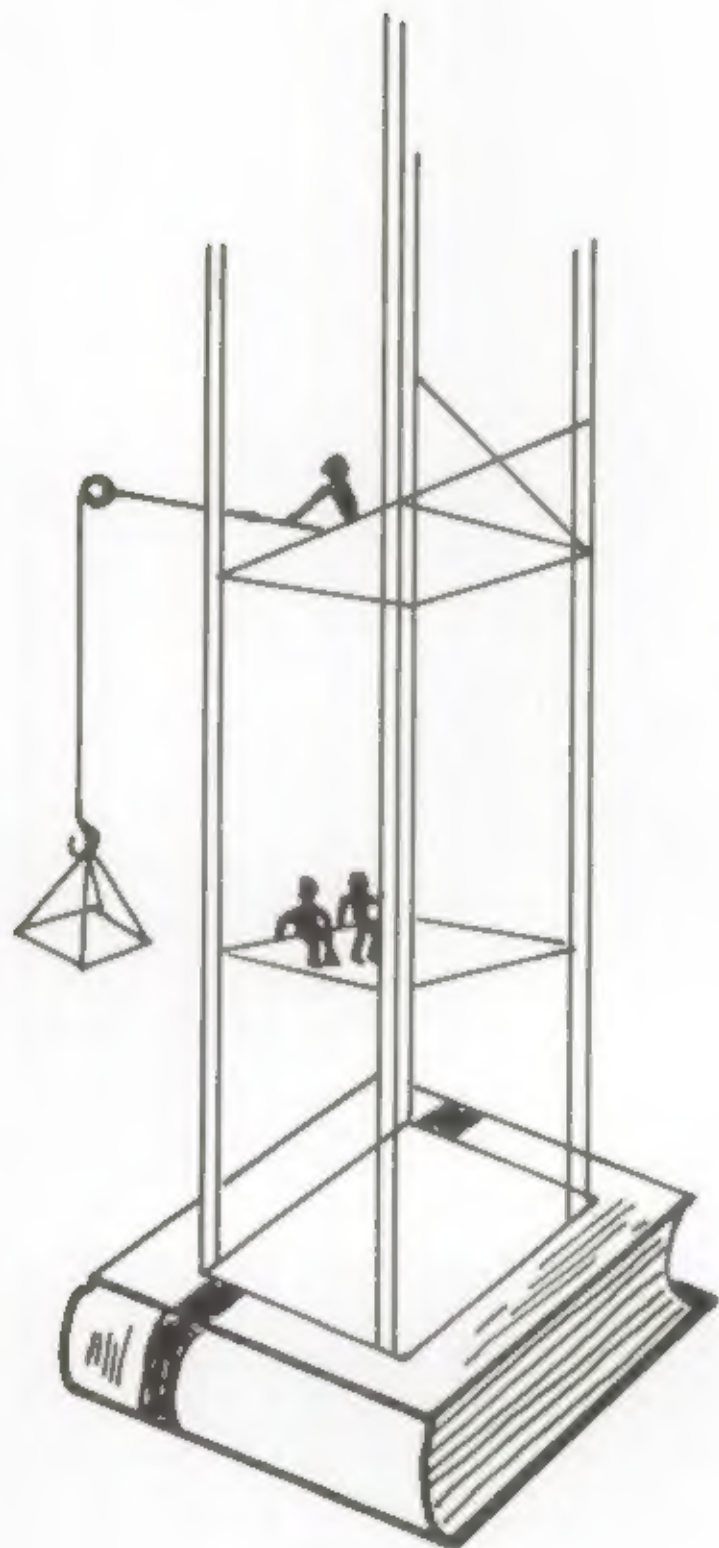

It has been the aim of the 1966 Chief-tain editors to capture some of the thoughts and actions which occurred during this academic year. To it you must add your own thoughts and remembrances for the full picture of the school year 1965-1966.

A school is continually building, even when earthmovers and steam shovels have disappeared from the premises. Physical structures are a definite part of this building, but so are stage settings, concerts, yearbooks, research papers, sock hops, and floats. Each one has its own merit, and each contributes to the makeup of the person involved.

An aerial photograph of the Osseo High School campus. The main school building is a large, multi-story structure with a dark roof and light-colored walls. To its right is a smaller, single-story building. In the foreground, there is a large, rectangular athletic field, possibly a football field, with a lighter-colored center. To the left of the main building is a parking lot with several cars. The surrounding area includes trees, a road, and other buildings in the distance.

Building for the Future . . .

at Osseo High

TO BUILD FOR TOMORROW is the only function of a school. Here is brought together the means for passing on those things that man has learned so that each generation does not have to begin anew.

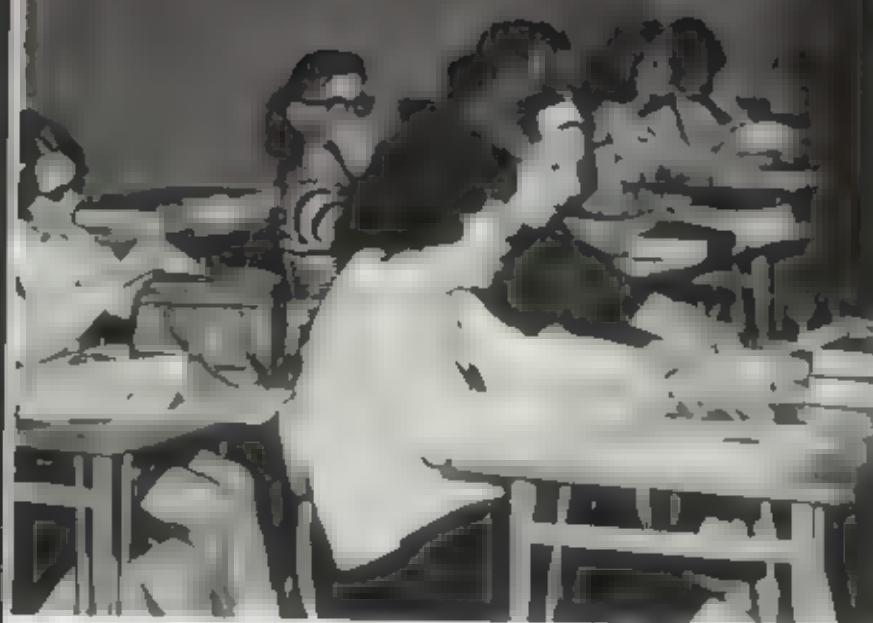

Regardless of what the future holds, it will require men and women who have made the most of their opportunities and built strong foundations--who have used the facilities of the school both in the classroom and in outside activities.

Osseo High School is built on a single idea--that the student is the center of the institution and the reason for its existence. And so it maintains an atmosphere which permits and encourages the individual to develop to his greatest capacity and to accept responsibility.

This atmosphere permeates classrooms, outside study, extracurricular activities, social program, student representation, and binding friendships.

IN THE CLASSROOM and in the laboratory, the plan for the future is formed. It is here we feel the joy of discovering a new idea-----a thought that appeals to our imagination-----a different approach which stimulates our creativity.

Because the school believes that tomorrow depends on an enlightened and sympathetic people, it strives to give the best possible education to its students. A close teacher-student relationship helps to create friendships between faculty and students which go beyond mere classroom acquaintances. The eagerness of teachers to help the individual student is a distinctive factor enabling student growth.

BOOKS ARE THE FOUNDATION in our building for tomorrow, for here are stored a man's thoughts, words, and deeds from the beginning of recorded history. From the record of the past we learn of successes and failures and make a blueprint for the future. Our study of the past develops judgment and foresight and gives us a sense of perspective.

BUILDING FRIENDSHIPS OF A LIFETIME is a part of attending any school. Learning to get along with others and to develop co-operation and leadership is a part of school and an education for the future.

School is more than a place to go just to pass time. In the school you meet people and have discussions. For from these discussions, the exchange of ideas and impressions that are shared, comes an ability to present, defend, weigh, and evaluate different points of view.

RECREATION ALSO IS A PART of school life. Mental health, physical health, and social health are inter-dependent, and experiences are provided in all of these fields.

An active intramural athletic program as well as varsity games provide an outlet for physical energy. Special events of Homecoming and Prom are occasions for additional planned recreation and social activity

Annual Lutefisk Supper

BUILDING TALENTS, IDEALS, AND ASSOCIATIONS which will be valuable throughout life is made easy at school where there are organizations, activities, and clubs to meet every interest.

In addition to work in the classroom our school has extracurricular groups interested in drama, forensics, debate, music, athletics, and language.

Ways of developing abilities, broadening interests and developing talents are available to all students.

Graduating Class of 1966

Mr. Rodeen and Mr. Leadholm congratulate seniors

BUILDING FOR THE FUTURE is a never-ending process for the future lies always ahead. Education is an attitude--an outlook--and, of course, a like a physical structure, is never finished. For new views continue to open before us and the further we pursue knowledge, the more we are aware of new areas.

But the habits of study, of learning, of participation, of weighing and evaluation, are the supports we have gained in school for meeting the opportunities and challenges which will come to us.

A rose for remembrance

And for the Future—hope

A Administration

Superintendent G. E. Rodeen has served as chief administrator of the Osseo Community Schools for five years. He received a Bachelor of Arts degree from Huron, South Dakota, and a Master of Education degree from the University of South Dakota. Before coming to Osseo, Mr. Rodeen taught in the high school at Conde, South Dakota, and Belmont, Wisconsin. Married for fourteen years, Mr. and Mrs. Rodeen are the parents of three daughters. A veteran of the Korean War, Mr. Rodeen enjoys flying as a pastime. He also enjoys hunting and fishing.

For eleven years, Mr. J. A. Leadholm has served on the O.H.S. staff. A graduate of River Falls State University, he received his Master's degree at the University of Minnesota. Teaching physical education and driver education, and coaching football, basketball, and track comprised Mr. Leadholm's faculty position before he became high school principal. Changes he notes include the enrollment growth from 175 students to 270 students.

Mr. and Mrs. Leadholm have been married for nine years and have three sons. Playing golf and water skiing fill Mr. Leadholm's leisure time. He served two years in the United States Navy.

New in the position of Elementary Co-ordinator this year is Mr. Donald Barnes who was formerly a teacher in the Osseo School System. Following two years teaching at Foster, he taught sixth grade in Osseo before assuming his new duties. He received a Bachelor of Science degree from River Falls State University and Eau Claire State University. Currently, Mr. Barnes is working toward a Master of Arts degree at Winona State College.

After being married, Mr. and Mrs. Barnes lived in Germany while he served with the United States Army. They have three children, two sons and a daughter.

Presiding at the head of the Freshman class as President is Steven Ives. Other fall election results were: Andrea Rongstad, Vice President; Linda Hagen, Treasurer; Wayne Olson, Secretary. Jeanine Larson became spokesman for the group at Student Council Meetings. First on the agenda for their year were the Homecoming festivities. 'Sink the Pirates', the Freshman float, brought third place honors to the class and was chalked up as experience. The presence of the class is felt in all areas of the school.

In G.A.A. and Boys Intermural Sports, they proved to upperclassmen that they intend to be serious contenders for the school honors. The Honor Roll proves that these Freshmen are on their toes with their studies, too. With the help of their advisors, Miss Oldenburg and Mr. Lehtinen, the year was worth all the trouble and gives a promise for three more rewarding years.

Sixty-five students returned to CHS last fall to comprise the Sophomore Class. The results of the fall elections were Clarence Roether, President; Paul Coplin, Vice President; Sharon Otto, Secretary; Linda Smith, Treasurer; and Cindy Barber, Student Council Representative.

Under the advisement of Miss Myers and Mr. Twesme, the student body became well aware of the Sophomores as they excelled in Forensics and won first place honors for their Homecoming float. "I Love Thee, Thee, Loos is our Motive" Carol Oles and Carol Thompson gave the right to represent CHS in the State Forensics contest in Madison, Wisconsin. Carol Oles also gained speech honors in the FFA contest. The Sophomores voted to send a contribution to Radio Free Europe instead of exchanging the usual Christmas gifts. Further education was brought to all Sophomores during their study hall. After learning the rules of the road, they were issued their permits.

The year's first activity was preparing a float for Homecoming. The theme "Dunk 'Em" was portrayed by the Chieftans dunking a doughnut in a cup. Although they had high hopes, the Juniors were given fourth place.

One of the most important events of the year was ordering class rings. Another important event was the Prom. The song, "Some Enchanted Evening," was chosen as the theme of the dance, April 16, 1966.

These are only a few of the many activities which they will always remember as part of the junior year at O.H.S. Each one has brought them closer to the final year of their high school education. They look forward to their last year with anticipation, and see new goals to meet.

The largest Senior Class in the history of Cassco High School began this school year a week after than originally scheduled because of delays in construction of the new addition to the existing plant. Prior to the opening of school, the class took buses to Fairview to have Senior portraits taken.

They had to concede their ability to build floats this year. After two years of capturing first place, they bowed to the Sophomore ability to outdo them in ingenuity. The Senior boys, however, won all places on the Homecoming Royalty.

Bo Walstrom an exchange student from Sweden spent the first semester with the class, and Helena Ferrer of Brazil joined them for the last half of the year. Much was learned about the people and traditions of both countries through contact with Bo and Helena.

The ordering of announcements and caps and gowns made the class realize how rapidly the high school career was coming to a close. Dates were set for the class to witness Senior Deeds, Baccalaureate and Commencement Services, and Awards Night.

On May 17, seventy-two solemn and sincere seniors and visitors completed their long walk across the stage to draw to a close another step on the building process of life.

" . . . Farewell"

" . . . Life is always changing. A successful one is a progressive one. No longer are we active members of the Senior Class. We are to launch forward into new endeavors and adventures, to enter upon the actual realities of life, and assume the responsibilities of our careers. Shall we succeed or shall we fail? That depends upon ourselves. Each one of us holds within his or her grasp the key to success.

" . . . And yet, now something comes up in our hearts and as we look into your faces and feel your nearness to us, and think of the days ahead when so many of the old ties will be severed, we pause to ask you to forget and to forgive our failures, our all too frequent mediocrity of performance, our thoughtlessness, and the anxieties we have caused you.

In the days to come, we shall try to prove to you that you have given us a precious heritage, indeed, of courage, of high purpose, and of the expectation that we, the children of your hearts, shall press on and become strong men and women, and stable citizens, capable when the time arrives of fitting into the great and beautiful pattern of life as God Himself intended that we should.

Now, classmates, friends, and teachers, it is time to say farewell. Happy times we have had together. We shall soon be taking different paths. Some of us may win fame or fortune or both; others may be content to remain in the modest walks of life. We hope to profit from our mistakes and be better prepared to walk life's highway than those that have passed before us. But whatever our status in life, whatever we do or whatever we are, we shall always look back with joy at this class of 1966. May the memories remain with us always and help drive us to a greater and more fruitful life."

Choir

With the school addition completed, everyone was looking forward to an exciting year in choir. They began the year by rehearsing music for the annual Christmas concert. Highlighting it was the duet choir selection, 'Hodie Christus Natus Est.'

Beginning with the 1965-66 Darcy and Co. Conference Music Festival was a new experience for Oases. A selected group from the choir participated in the concert.

Another of the year's important events was the Christmas concert. Choir members were assigned to sing for the first half, singing selections from the 'Moby Brown' musical. Singing costumes were donated for the remaining half of the concert, 'Songs of the Sea.' Fairleigh State University was the sponsor of a choral contest, which the choir took part. Many students competed in the Solo and Ensemble Contest which was held at Memorial High School at Fairfield. We finished the year by participating in the annual Band and Choir Festival held in Fairfield.

Sixty-three members under the direction of Mr. Richard Quast comprised the concert and marching bands at O.H.S. Much progress was apparent as they adventured into the uncharted realm of music by attempting and playing many new and different compositions.

Concerts provided the opportunity for musicians to display their prowess and talents. This year besides performing in the annual Christmas and Spring Concerts, they performed at the Freedom Shrine Dedication Service and the School Dedication Service. Exchange concerts with Whitehall were graciously given and received. Contest day, May 14, provided the final reward for a year of hard work.

The Forensic squad for the third straight year won the Northern Dairyland Forensic Contest, held this year at Alma Center - Lincoln. Out of this year's 16-member team, two students, Carol Otto and Carol Thompson, represented Osseo at the State Contest on April 23. Both girls received 'B' ratings at Madison.

This is the fourth year that Osseo has participated in Debate. The Osseo squad participated in six tournaments including an Interstate Invitational Tournament at Eau Claire. The season which runs from November through February was concluded at the District Contest at Regis High School on February 18. With the majority of this year's debaters being underclassmen, the future looks promising for this activity in the future.

Girls' Athletic

The GAA started off this year's many activities with a magazine sale, the proceeds of which went toward the purchase of a trampoline. Last fall, cheerleaders from over fifty schools participated in the successful clinic held in Osseo. Proceeds from this event helped to buy new uniforms for the Varsity Cheerleaders.

All Girls Prom

The Future Homemakers of America is an organization of girls who have had at least one semester of Home Economics and are interested in working towards better home and family living. In addition to participating in local and state activities an individual can work independently on objectives concerned with goals towards improving personal, family and community living. The highlights of the year were the style show, F.H.A. Rally, Christmas caroling and the "All Girls Prom." The Senior girls enjoyed an evening eating out for dinner.

Sophomore, Junior, and Senior girls who attain twenty grade points are eligible to membership in the Girls' Honorary Club. "Service" is the club's motto and is carried out in various ways. With the new elementary library in use, members now tend desk, arrange bulletin boards, and mend books for two libraries. Book Week and National Library Week were observed with bulletin boards and posters. Working in the large, newly furnished high school library made these services more enjoyable.

Climaxing the year's activities was a trip to Minneapolis on May 7, when the girls attended the Cinerama, shopped, and finished the day with dinner at the Jolly Troll Smorgasbord.

This is an organization formed for bettering the relationship of the athletes among themselves and with the school. Working together in their respective sports, the members have the chance to show their abilities in organizing special events sponsored by the club. They also work on concessions and help clean up after home ball games. Any boy who has earned a varsity letter in any of the competitive sports--football, basketball, wrestling, track, golf, or baseball--is eligible to be a member of the Club. Under the supervision of Mr. Matye and with the help of Mr. Rodeen, the club made many advances this past year. They bought a popcorn machine and secured the use of a malt machine to provide refreshment for home athletic contests. The result of much planning and hard work was apparent this year as the Club washed buses, had candy sales, sponsored a "Donkey Basketball Game," and took part in various other activities to help pay for blazers to wear on game days and to the game.

Pep Club members rendered approximately 600 volunteer hours this year helping to show the true loyalty and spirit which stand behind our wearing of the orange and black, and to uphold the ideals of true sportsmanship by supporting our athletic teams in victory and defeat.

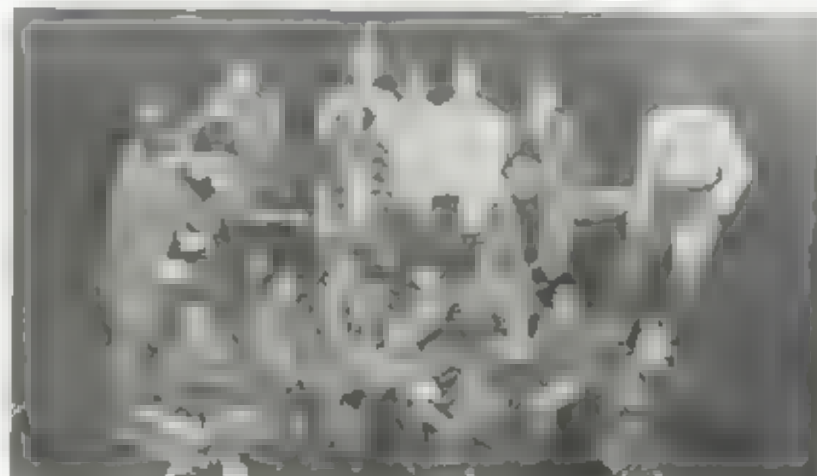

Primary responsibilities of the group included ticket-taking at home football and basketball games, and wrestling matches. Posters and wall displays to boost school spirit and morale were constructed.

For the year, special projects included gym decorations, cafeteria decorations, name tags, and lunch tickets for the North Central Cheerleading Clinic and concession duties shared with FHA for the conference wrestling tournament.

Based on a point system of one point per hour of work, members receive awards for an accumulation of 10, 25, and 45 points. Thirty-eight girls received awards this year: one senior, twelve juniors, nine sophomores, and sixteen freshmen.

Hobo Day

German Club

Ray Jermstad, Cynthia Barber, Merrie Sieg, and Marnalee Pederson were elected officers of the 1966 German Club at their first meeting. As part of their many activities in the year, they went to Spencer Pederson's for a Christmas party. As part of learning German customs, they played German games, sang German songs, and ate German food. Speaking and understanding German, the main purpose of the Club, was emphasized by the participation in the National German test by Ray Jermstad and Cynthia Barber.

National Honor Society

Osseo High School was accepted as an active member of the National Honor Society in 1962. The National Honor Society aims to stimulate scholarship, leadership, purposeful service, and worthy character of the students in the high schools of this country.

The local chapter has, as members, Junior or Senior students who have at least a "B" average and are outstanding in service, leadership, and character. All prospective members must be approved by the entire high school faculty.

Our Winter Love

The Junior class selected Jim Gilbert to reign over their Prom. Jim chose Mary Jo Dewitz as his queen.

Zane Kittleson and Lora Hagen acted as crown bearers.

King Jim is crowned by last year's Prom King, Marv Lunde.

King Jim and Queen Mary Jo with their royal court. The court included Lyle Sell and Sue Sieg, Dave Monson and Sandy Schaefer, Tim Broertzman and Marnalee Pederson, Dave Hammer and Bonnie Ida.

The gym was a masterpiece of red and gold. Hearts were used as the central theme. The center was adorned by a fountain and tiny pine trees.

The King and Queen sit upon their heart-shaped throne. "Our Winter Love" was a fitting theme for the February Prom.

Moon Over Naples

King Tim Broetzmann and Queen Sue Sieg reigned over the 1966 Homecoming activities. The gym was beautifully decorated to carry out the theme "Moon Over Naples."

King Tim, Queen Sue, and their court. Mike Ives and Debbie Dewitz, Marv McCune and Lorraine Dahl, Jim Gilbert and Bonnie Ida, Dave Monson and Sandy Schaefer, Dave Hammer and Jane Lauterbach completed the royalty.

The Grand March was the highlight of the evening. The King and Queen led the long walk around the gym.

We Could Have Danced All Night!

Music was furnished by a local combo consisting of Drs. Brad and Dick Garber and Rev. John Morrison.

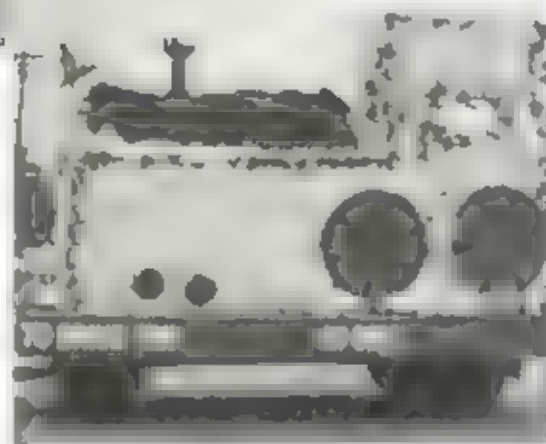

The King and Queen visit the punch table. The punch was made and served by Karen Brechlin, Jane Pederson, and Merrie Sieg.

The Queen and her attendants pleased the crowds as they rode in their convertibles.

The Homecoming parade highlighted the afternoon. The Juniors received fourth place for their float. The Freshmen's efforts gave their float third place; the Seniors took second place. The Sophomores' motorized locomotive stole the first place honors.

The band led the way and provided a spirited march tune for the parade.

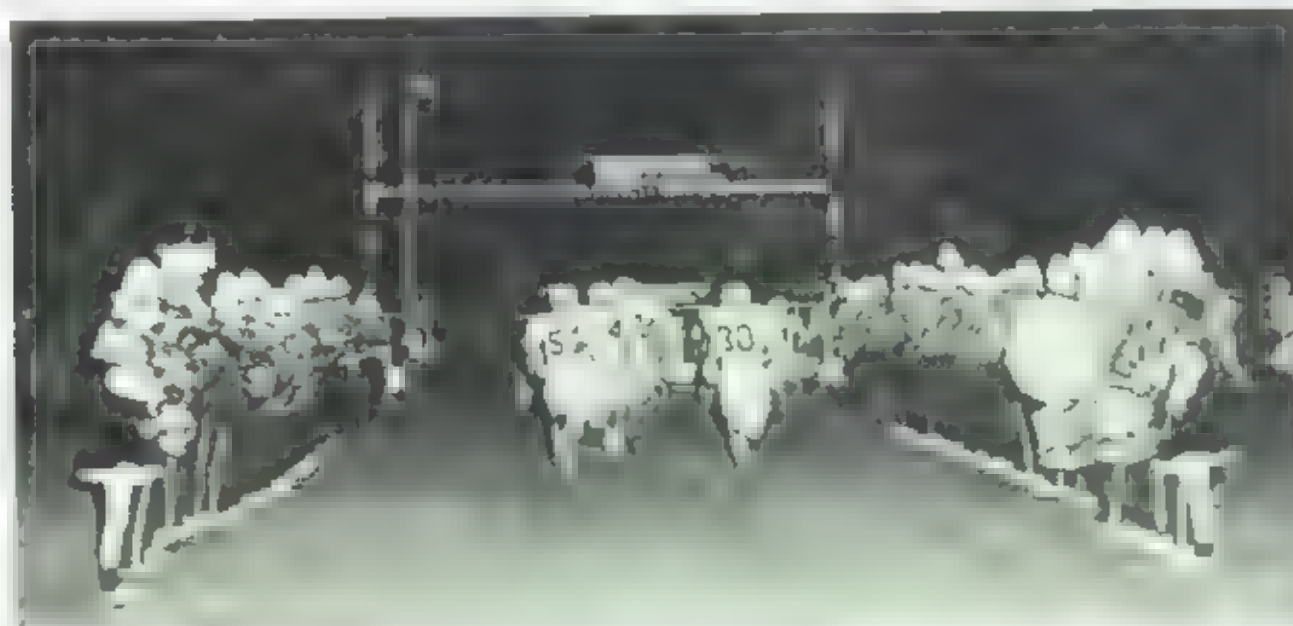

The Osseo team kicks off the Homecoming game. Although we were defeated, spirits were still high at the dance which followed.

Actors, We?

"Save Me A Place in Forrest Lawn" was selected the winner in the local one-act play contest. Sue Sieg and Carol Otto constituted the cast of the play directed by Miss Myers. The story is an account of two women preparing for the future. In district competition at Eau Claire, the girls received a "B" rating.

Mr. Quast proved to be an able director in "Joint Owners in Spain." The cast included Cynthia Barber, Karen Brechlin, Merrie Sieg, and Carol Thompson. The story centers around two inmates of a rest home and how they overcame their personality clashes.

"No 'Count Boy", under the direction of Miss Rasmuson, featured James Dake, Allen Abley, Jane Pederson, and Jane Quinn. The play deals with the engagement of a girl to one man and her love for another.

Mr. Tilly directed "Betty Jane from Pumpkin Lane" which centers around life on the farm owned by Auntie Bean. Betty has just returned to her farm home from the big city and decides to find herself a husband. During Betty's absence from the farm, Auntie Bean has been forced to take on boarders because of financial necessity. Betty falls in love with the boarder the first time she sees him.

Meanwhile, Auntie Bean has been tricked into selling a valuable piece of property for a much too low price. Together Betty, Auntie Bean, the neighbors, and the boarders regain the land from the swindler and resell it for its full value.

The cast included Tim Broetzmann, Jane Pederson, Jane Quinn, Bob Lien, Karen Brechlin, Cynthia Barber, Nancy Myhres, James Dake, Dave Monson, Sandy Schaefer, Jim Gilbert, and Vicki Strasburg. Sue Sieg was student director.

"Spooky Junction" is an account of the mysterious happenings that occurred in an old abandoned railroad station when several people are forced to seek shelter there from a flood. A sinister man appears and claims he is the spirit of the dead watchman who had been killed twenty years before.

It is finally discovered that the "dead" watchman is really using the station as a hiding place for the counterfeit money he is making. The Crook and his accomplice are at last brought to justice and the stranded strangers are permitted to go on their respective ways. The cast included James Dake, Terry Rosenberg, Vicki Strasburg, Allen Abley, Andrea Rongstad, Karen Brechlin, Sue Amundson, and Jane Pederson.

The Big Noise

On November 20, the G. A. A. and the Pep Club, sponsored the North-Central Cheering Clinic. Approximately 300 girls from 50 schools in the area participated in the day's activities. Mrs. Mary Ann Davis instructed the girls in crowd philosophy and taught cheers, pom-pom routines, jumps, and freezes. The proceeds from the clinic were used to buy new uniforms for the Varsity cheerleaders.

On November 6, Osseo played host to the Dairyland Conference Band and Choir Clinic. Dr. William Estes and Mr. George Regis were guest conductors for the Choir and Band. Choir representatives from Osseo were Mary Jo DeWitz, Ruth Monson, Molly Putledge, Sandy Schaefer, massed concert band on the final evening. Karen Brechlin served as accompanist for Sylvia's solo.

Robert Lien, Charles Julson, William Nelson, Gerald Otto, Linda Anderson, Dianne Johnson, Nancy Myhres, Lynda Faldet, Allen Abley, Gary Ausen, and Elliot Kaas.

Band representatives were Bonnie Lauterbach, John Haugen, Jeff Dodge, Barb Sieg, Sylvia Andreas, Carolyn Klatt, Karen Brechlin, Marnalee Pederson, Becky Colby, John Zemple, Sue Rindal, Albert Seffens, Jane Quinn, and Sue Sieg.

Two Band members were chosen to accompany Mr. Quast to the Dorian Band Festival at Luther College, Decorah, Iowa. Donna Dahl and Sylvia Andreas played their solos for critics and gained helpful suggestions for improvement. They played in the Ten choir and three band members brought their Class A entries to state competition. The Senior Girls' Triple Trio placed II. Karen Brechlin placed I in her vocal solo and was given an opportunity to audition for a scholarship in a summer music clinic.

Sylvia Andreas received a I rating on her bass clarinet solo, Karl Idsvoog and Karen Brechlin both received III on their alto sax solos.

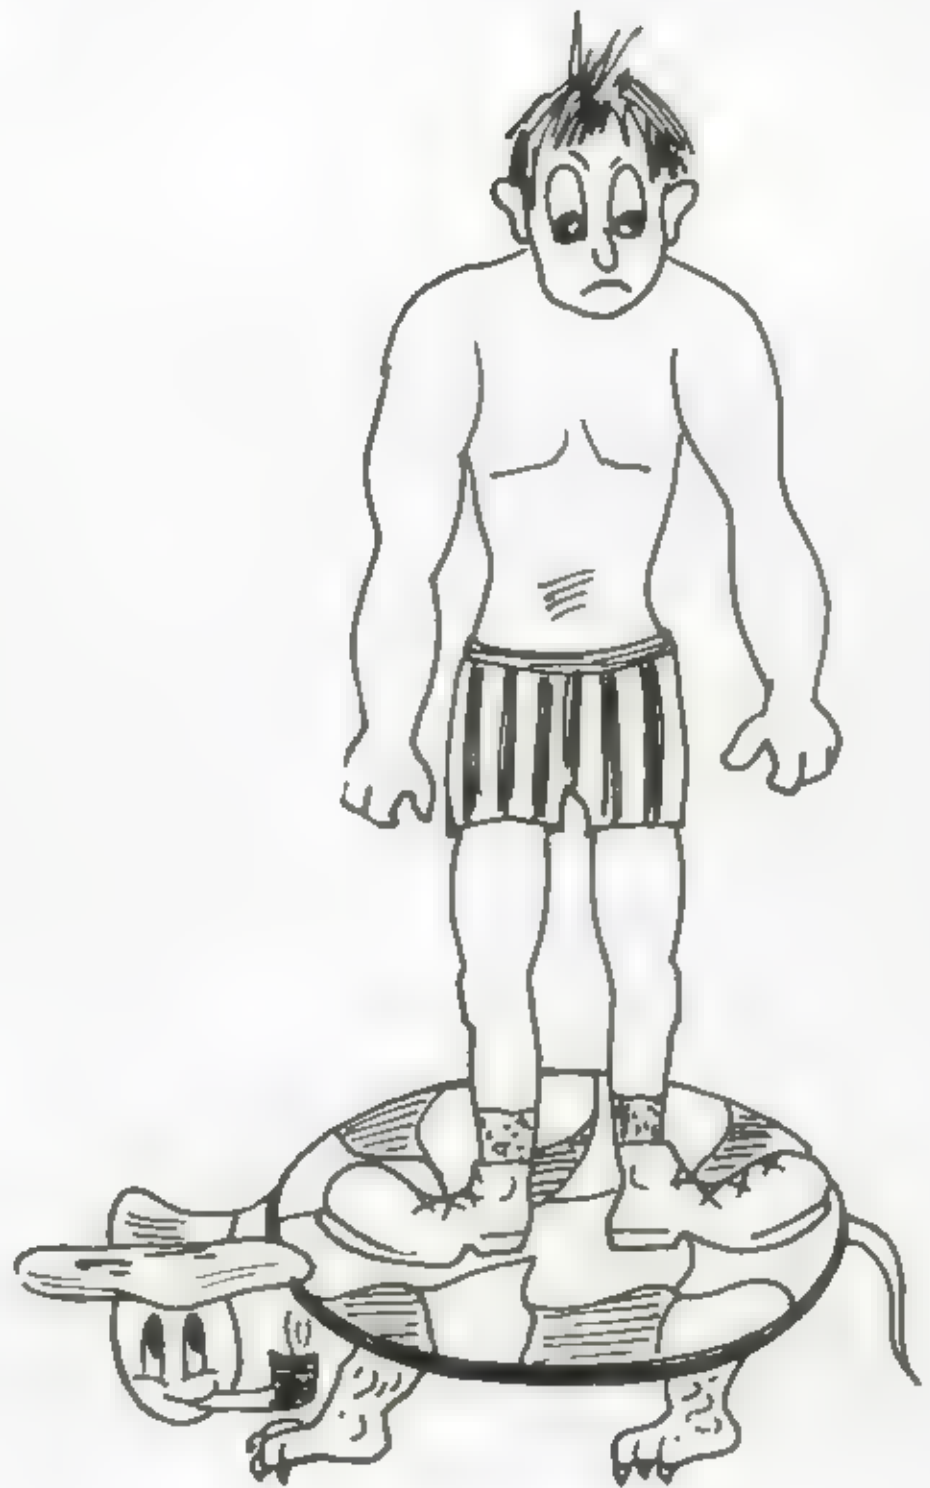

Helena Dodd Ferrez of South America became Osseo's third student in the recently organized Exchange Program. Mr. and Mrs. Gilberto Ferrez of Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, are the parents of Helena. The rest of her family consists of three older sisters and her twin sister. While living here she made her home with Reverend and Mrs. John Morrison who have two young daughters. Her hobbies are swimming, painting, reading, and music. She took up the great American pastime of golfing during her stay here. In our school, Helena was active in G. A. A., Choir, Pep Club, and Annual Staff. Helena left Rio in December while the temperatures were in the 100's and came for a six and one half month stay in Wisconsin where sub-zero temperatures were everyday occurrences in the winter months. After her return to Brazil, Helena will finish her second semester of Brazilian High School and prepare for her college entrance exams. Having Helena was a unique experience for many reasons; but the two outstanding ones were that she was the first girl from the exchange program, and she came from a country that most of us knew relatively little about. Her brief stay here has given us an entirely different view of Brazil and South America in general. She will never be forgotten and many memories will be stored up as a result of "our Helena."

Osseo's football team finished in fourth place with its best record ever of three wins and four losses. Illness and injuries hampered the Chieftains somewhat, but a good bench came to the call of duty. The backfield consisted of hard-running Neil McCune, all-Conference fullback Lyle Sell, flanker Tim Broetzmann, and Dave Nelson at quarterback. Sophomore Chuck Julson had spot duty in all positions of the backfield and led the team in scoring with 19 points. Dave Hammer, Dave Monson, Marv McCune, Craig Olson, and Martin Jermstad led the charge of the linemen.

The Chieftains lost their opening game to Neillsville in a hard fought battle, but came back for victories over Blair, Lincoln, and Whitehall. The Chiefs were fifth in Defense and sixth in Offense and placed three players on Conference teams.

The Chiefs got the '65-'66 basketball season off to a roaring start by winning their first five games. By keeping pace with chief rival, Central, Osseo remained in a tie for first place. Two successive losses to the defending champions and to Whitehall dropped the Chiefs to second place. Winning the Holiday Tournament held at the home court provided the momentum to carry the Chieftains through the first part of the second half. During this time, they reached their highest point total of the season, scoring 90 points against Blair. Even though falling into a tailspin the latter part of the season, the team obtained one of its best records and finished in a tie for third place.

Honorary captains were Darrell Hanson and Lyle Sell. The five graduating seniors are Tim Broetzmann, Mike Foss, Darrell Hanson, Jim Julson, Lyle Sell. The seniors were beaten out in the class competition by the stubborn juniors who also defeated the faculty in the "title" game.

Coach Matye again raised some fine "Papoozes." The "B" team's season record was a respectable twelve wins and four losses. Joining next year's "A" Team will be four juniors, Terry Smith, Neil McCune, Dave Olson, and Dave Gilbertson and one sophomore, Chuck Julson. All five started for the "B" team and saw some Varsity action.

With nine returning lettermen, eight of which were seniors, the wrestling squad had hopes of securing the Conference title. The wrestlers faced little difficulty in their first matches out-scoring their opponents by wide margins. The last conference match with C-F-C proved to be decisive in determining the championship. The Chiefs lost the match by one point and finished with a 5-1 record to C-F-C's 5-0-1 record.

Freshman Steve Ives, earning a perfect record in conference action, showed the most promise of the underclassmen for the future.

Previous years of camp and endless hours of planning and practice paid off this year as Osseo's Varsity Cheerleaders stole the spotlight and received honors at the NCA Cheering Camp at WSU-Platteville. They were among 257 cheerleaders from 57 schools in Wisconsin, Iowa, Minnesota, Illinois, and Indiana. Osseo placed in its competition class every day and brought home two first places, two thirds, and one honorable mention.

Competition for a position on any of the five local squads is keen. Elections are based not only on cheerleading skill but also on leadership, personality, and appearance.

In Conclusion . . .

The Osseo athletic squads have compiled a winning record of 58 per cent for all contests through the regular school year. A total of 12 different squads competed in 109 events, winning 63, losing 44, and tying two. The Varsity Football team finished fourth in the Dairyland Conference, the Wrestling team placed second only one-half point out of first place, and the Basketball team placed third.

Osseo has been a member of the Dairyland Conference for seven years. During this period the Varsity Football squads have won a total of eight games with the 1961 and 1965 squads winning three games each to capture the largest share of victories. The 1965-66 Basketball squad won eight conference games, the most games won by an Osseo team in the Dairyland Conference. The Osseo Basketball squads have compiled a total record of 23 Dairyland victories during the past seven years with the 1965-66 squad winning eight games and the 1962-63 squad grading six wins.

The 1965-66 edition of the Osseo Wrestling squad achieved a fine record of eight victories and three defeats bringing them within an eyelash of a conference championship. The Cross-country team won three of five dual meets and finished high in invitational and sectional meets.

The track team finished the season on an even note and sent one individual to the State meet. Osseo's golf team using the forces of the Freshmen had a losing season but ended up with overall lower individual scores. Winning three of four exhibition games, the baseball team has won more games than did any of its predecessors. The records for all contests are as follows:

Team	Won	Lost	Tie

We Salute You . . .

Athletic competition is within its competitors a keen sense of rivalry within the bounds of sportsmanship. A sound athletic program is as much a part of the modern high school as an up-to-date curriculum.

Under the supervision of Coach Matye and Assistant Coach Mulhern, the football team played its best season in the history of the Dary and Conference. With Mr. Mulhern as Head Coach and Mr. Matye as Assistant Coach, the basketball team also had its best record in Dary and Conference action. During the first half of the season, Mr. Mulhern and his team received special mention for four consecutive weeks in the rating of the top ten small schools in the state of Wisconsin. The wrestling squad, led by Head Coach Bong and Assistant Coach Hauschildt finished one of their best seasons and were rated second among other area wrestling squads. Two boys went to the Regional Tournament and one went on to the Sectional Tournament. Guiding the track team, Head Coach Matye and Assistant Coaches Mulhern and Bong sent one individual to State Competition for Class C schools. Coach Lauffer has been successful in building to top positions the golf team in future competition. Baseball, a summer sport headed by Coach Mulhern, has started to gain more interest at Osseo, with the landscaping of a new field and the building of a batting cage.

The graduating class of 1966, therefore, salutes the members of the coaching staff of Osseo High School for their fine accomplishments and achievements during the past 1965-1966 sports year.
